Numb. 13460.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 18, to Saturday September 22, 1792.

Whitehall, September 22.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Wick, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Borough of Wick, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the higheſt Veneration and Reſpect for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and of the moſt inviolable Attachment to our happy Conſtitution, and with Hearts overflowing with Gratitude and Thankfulneſs for the late Inſtance of your Majeſty's fatherly Regard and unremitted Attention for the Safety and Welfare of your People, manifeſted in the late Proclamation againſt ſeditious Writings and Publications.

Senſible as we are of the ineſtimable Bleſſings and Privileges we enjoy under a Government, the beſt that Human Wiſdom ever deviſed, we cannot but lament that there ſhould be Individuals in the Kingdom, who, under the ſpecious, though falſe Appearance of Patriotiſm, endeavour, by their Writings, to diſſeminate Doctrines of the moſt dangerous Tendency, ſubverſive of the fundamental Principles of the Conſtitution, and calculated to excite a Spirit of Sedition and Revolt throughout the Nation, and that too at a Time when, perhaps, there never was leſs Cauſe for thoſe Fears and Jealouſies which ſeem to actuate the Authors of theſe ſcandalous and ſeditious Publications; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, not only of our utter Abhorrence and Deteſtation of all ſuch Writings, but alſo of our hearty Concurrrence in every conſtitutional Meaſure for the Suppreſſion thereof, and bringing the deluded Authors thereof to a due Senſe of their Errors.

We earneſtly pray that your Majeſty may long wield the Sceptre of the Britiſh Empire in Peace and Tranquility, and that the fame may be handed down to your Royal Deſcendants to the lateſt Poſterity.

Signed by Appointment, and the Common Seal of the Borough hereto affixed, in Preſence of the Council, at Wick, the 7th Day of September, 1792 Years, by

Will. Mac Leay, Chief Reſiding Magiſtrate.
